ADDICTION STUDIES EDUCATION (INCASE)
BIENNIAL CONFERENCE 2009

AT THE CUTTING EDGE: ATTRACTING AND EDUCATING THE NEXT GENERATION OF ADDICTION PROFESSIONALS

OCTOBER 29-31, 2009

Hyatt Regency Jersey City at Exchange Place

About INCASE: The International Coalition for Addiction Studies Education is a professional association of university faculty, departments and students specializing in addiction studies. INCASE provides a global forum for the examination and debate of issues concerning post secondary education, enhances the quality of training and education, disseminates professional knowledge and develops standards and implementation strategies for accreditation, all in the addiction studies realm. www.incase.org

Conference: The 2009 INCASE Conference is one of a series of workshop-based conferences held over the past decade. This conference will feature cutting-edge topics from some of the more relevant organizations and groups involved in the addictions field, such as

- Online Teaching and Use of the Internet in Instruction
- How to Prepare for Publication
- MET for Special Populations
- The Accreditation Process
- An Addictions Leadership/Summit Panel

Who Should Attend? Educators, workshop trainers and students in addiction studies will all benefit from attending this conference by keeping abreast of the latest research and resources available on addiction.

Co-Sponsors:

- ◆ The Central East Addiction Technology Transfer Center (Central East)
- ◆ New Jersey Society of Addiction Medicine
- ◆ Institute for Behavioral and Addiction Studies

Conference Highlights:

- ◆ An Addiction Counseling Summit: State of the Field
